“CHARLES INMAN HONORARY SCHOLARSHIP AWARD” NOMINATION FORM

Education is one of the main objectives of the Georgia Association of Agricultural Fairs. Many children and other young people get their first up-close look at the many facets of Agriculture when they attend their local fair. The Georgia Association of Agricultural Fairs is well aware that young people of today are the leaders of tomorrow and the “Charles Inman Honorary Scholarship Award” is one way to help high school seniors in their pursuit of a higher education at an accredited institution in an undergraduate course of study in any field.

The scholarship, sponsored by Dixieland Carnival Company, LLC will be awarded annually and applicants will be judged on Scholastic Standing, Citizenship and Leadership, Community Service, Local Fair Participation and Financial Need.

RULES:

1. The applicant must be a high school senior. They must reside in the State of Georgia, and must have been an active participant in a local or State Fair in some capacity. They must be nominated by a current GAAF member fair.
2. All questions on the application form must be answered to be considered for an award. Their High School transcript MUST be attached.
3. Applications will be judged on the following basis:
 - a. Scholastic Standing 25%
 - b. Citizenship and Leadership 20%
 - c. Community Service 25%
 - d. Local or State Fair Participation 25%
 - e. Financial Need 5%
4. In addition to the application form and transcripts, the applicant must submit an essay of 1,000 words or less with the topic of “What A Fair Means To Me”. The essay should be type written with #12 times Roman font, double spaced and submitted in a separate sealed envelope attached to the application form.
5. Scholarship forms and documentation is due no later than December 5th preceding the GAAF’s annual convention. The recipient will be notified by the first week of January and the Scholarship will be awarded at the GAAF convention on Saturday, January 27, 2018.
